

WHO CAN ENTER?

The everywoman Entrepreneur Awards are open to any female business owner whether they operate as a limited company, sole trader, or in partnership with others. The awards celebrate the woman behind the business, her personal successes and achievements and how she individually inspires others. As such, we cannot accept joint nominations.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- Nominees must be based or have their chief operations in the UK.
- Nominees must be able to demonstrate that they are the key owner of the business and must have been in business for longer than 18 months as of the nomination deadline (3 June 2024).
- Nominations and supporting evidence must be submitted by the deadline of 3 June 2023.
- Please ensure nominees are available on the scheduled Judging Day (virtual, between 09:00-17:00 on 8 October 2023) and the Awards Ceremony (on 4 December 2023) in the potential outcome of being selected as a successful finalist.
- An entry form will need to be completed for each nominee. The information provided will be disclosed only to the judges, the staff of everywoman, the category sponsor and our key partner.
- Trading date criteria for categories should be calculated as of 3 June 2024.
- Previous nominees to the everywoman Awards are invited to enter again, and will need to complete a new online nomination with up-to-date information about their business.
- You may nominate yourself.
- You can nominate as many people as you like.
- Details provided in the nomination form will potentially be used for press releases and web content if the nominee is placed as a finalist or winner, so please ensure it is factually correct - we will not be liable for inaccuracies published based on nomination content and changes may not be possible after publication.

JUDGING:

- All successful nominees will be contacted by the end of September 2024 if required to attend Judging Day.
- There will be one winner per category and one recipient of the Woman of the Year everywoman Award. The judges' decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into before or after the judging.
- Due to the large number of nominations received, the judging panel are unable to provide individual feedback.
