

Bupa everywoman in Technology Awards Terms & Conditions

WHO CAN ENTER?

The Bupa everywoman in Technology Awards are for those who possess the qualities, attitude, hard work ethic and commitment to supporting other women that makes them a credit to the industry and the organisations they work for. They are the talented women who have exceeded expectations as well as inspired success in others.

The Awards are open to all women, and those that identify as a woman, working in technology at all stages of their career.

Entrants can either nominate themselves or be nominated by someone else, they can enter a maximum of two categories and must:

- Work within a technology-based role
- Based or have their chief operations in the UK or Ireland. (International applications accepted in Tech For Good & CTO/CIO categories)
- Be available for a judging day on the 16 January 2025 and the awards ceremony in London in the evening of 13 March 2025

JUDGING PROCESS:

- All successful entrants will be contacted in December 2024 and told if they will be required to attend Judging Day.
- If selected, the Awards ceremony takes place on the 13 March 2025 in London. Attendance at the Awards is a condition of entry.
- There will be one winner per category as well as one recipient of the Woman of the Year Award.
- All decisions regarding the judging process are made by our independent judging panel. The everywoman team do not influence this process.
- The judges' decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into before or after the judging.
- Due to the large number of nominations received, the judging panel are unable to provide individual feedback.

Please note that only two nominees from the same company may go through to the finalist stage for any one category.

